

eY up

FULL SPEED AHEAD

Malton-based Classic and Sportscar Centre celebrated their 25th birthday with a black tie dinner at the National Railway Museum in York. The event was attended by 230 guests including Lord and Lady Steel of Aikwood, and former England rugby captain Martin Johnson. After reception drinks, guests enjoyed dinner and speeches, before dancing the night away to the live music.

